UNRWA announced on 10 January that it would lift restrictions on staff movements.

UNRWA opened four new shelters on 10 January in response to increased demand in Gaza City, Jabalia, and Deir al Balah.

The Gaza Power Plant (GPP) partially resumed functioning on 10 January.

According to WHO, 189 patients, mostly war injuries but also some chronically ill, have been transferred through Rafah crossing as of 10 January.

Approximately 500,000 people have no access to running water.

Organizations continue to face difficulty in distributing assistance of depleting stocks due to the security situation.

Access between northern Gaza and the rest of the territory remains possible only via the coastal road west of the former Israeli settlement of Netzarim and is restricted to humanitarian relief assistance.

Much of the population of the Gaza Strip continues to live without electricity.

Hospital electricity is still being provided by back-up generators.

according to WHO, 220 people were killed as of 11 January 2009 (not functional)